FBLA Creed

I BELIEVE:

- education is the right of every person.
- the future depends on mutual understanding and cooperation among business, industry, labor, religious, family, and educational institutions, as well as people around the world. I agree to do my utmost to bring about understanding and cooperation among all of these groups.
- every person should prepare for a useful occupation and carry on that occupation in a manner that brings the greatest good to the greatest number.
- every person should actively work toward improving social, political, community, and family life.
- every person has the right to earn a living at a useful occupation.
- every person should take responsibility for carrying out assigned tasks in a manner that brings credit to self, associates, school, and community.
- I have the responsibility to work efficiently and to think clearly. I promise to use my abilities to make the world a better place for everyone.

WHAT IT IS:

Bellevue Future Business Leaders of America prepares students for career success through Leadership, Community Service, and Academic Activities.

WHAT IT ISN'T:

Only for students going to college to major in business. Since business is a key function of every industry, FBLA members are able to compete in and explore multiple industry experiences in order to acquire transferable skills to industry areas or higher education major areas of focus.
