Students are involved in many activities beyond the classroom walls each year, and some of these opportunities are presenting at local, regional, state, and national competitions. Two of these groups with opportunities for students are FBLA (Future Business Leaders of America) and FFA (Future Farmers of America). Some of their results as individuals/teams are below.

FFA

The Iowa FFA Leadership Conference was held this week in Ames. Bellevue HS Students participated in a variety of activities, and some specific accomplishments included the following:

- FFA Marketing Plan Team (Ryenne Dunn, Delaney Dunne, & Hope Griebel) placed 3rd at the State FFA Convention
- FFA Poultry Judging Team (Erin Sprank, Tony Sprank, Anthony & Nathan Both) received a GOLD rating at the State FFA Convention.

FBLA

Ryan Dunn, Alivia Wagner, Tate Giesemann, Delaney Dunne, Kendelle Scheckel, Adessa Leibfried, Alyssa Wagner, Alyssa Manders, Alexa Roeder, Alexandria Caughron, and Callie Recker
