Community Visitor

Thanks to Dave Eischeid who visited with the first graders in Mrs. Reeg's room about the importance of art in his life and how art can help people express their feelings and discover beauty in all things. Dave is a former art teacher in the Bellevue CSD, and is a regular visitor to the school. Dave is also highly involved with the various activities of the Bellevue Arts Council.

School Musical

Next weekend the Bellevue CSD will be performing the musical production of "The Wizard of Oz" on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday (November 3-5). The students have been preparing for this since the school year started, and this includes high school students along with several elementary students (Munchkins). Come out and see the multiple cast of characters, including the following (plus many more):

- Dorothy (Rilynn Riggs).
 - The Lion (Brody Recker)
 - Scarecrow (Alena Campbell)
 - Tin Man (Noah Kilkoyne)
 - The Wicked Witch (Olivia Ruggeberg)

K9 Visit and Red Ribbon Week

Earlier this week, Jackson County Sheriff Deputy Melissa Schmidt visited with the entire elementary before school and talked about the importance of Red Ribbon Week and did a demonstration with her dog, Bono. Bono and Officer Schmidt were also at the middle/school high school last week doing a routine check as the district does a few times each year in the school and/or parking lot.
