

Special Education/At-Risk
Bellevue High School

Rick Casel
rickcasel@bellevue.k12.ia.us

DESCRIPTION

- Model and teach respect and responsibility
- Teach the importance of setting goals and working toward achieving them
- Learn skills that will allow students to successfully participate in lifelong activities
- Meeting the goals of each and every IEP student

BEHAVIOR

- Language - no profanity or any inappropriate language
- Cell phones are not allowed to be out during class
- Respect-respect teacher, students, and school property
- Equipment-take care of school property including the computers

GRADING

- Students will receive 20 points per week for their academic writing
- Students will receive 20 points per week for passing all classes
- Students will receive 20 points per week for being to class on time

GRADING SCALE Based on points earned

- 100-90 A
- 89-80 B
- 79-70 C
- 69-60 D
- 59-0 F

MAKE UP WORK Students can make up their writing if they are absent excused for the total points. If students want to improve their grade and want extra credit, then they can write a 500 word essay on how to improve our school.

TECHNOLOGY We will be using Google Classroom for the weekly writings. Inappropriate use of technology will result in a zero or ninth block.